

TARTARS-REDONDO CLASH HERE TONIGHT IN ANNUAL THS HOMECOMING GAME

Saxons Meet Culver City Today

TARTAR STOPPER . . . Butch Hazel, senior letterman and center for the Torrance eleven, has been most consistent Tartar lineman on squad. On defense, the 5'9", 170-pounder, fills in at guard and makes his presence known all over the turf. Hazel will lead Tartar line against Redondo tonight in annual Homecoming game.

SEAHAWK HOPE . . . Quarterback Dean Moore has been carrying a good share of the offensive load for Redondo's Seahawks during the current season. Moore will lead visitors against Torrance tonight on local field in 8 p.m. Homecoming game.

Homecoming Dance Tonight

Immediately following tonight's Torrance-Redondo grid affair, the annual Torrance High Homecoming Dance will be held in the Civic Auditorium, at Cravens and El Prado.

Members of graduating classes since, and including, 1951 will be admitted on presentation of their invitations, plus 25 cents. Graduates of classes prior to 1951 may pick up tickets at the Student Government Office today on the THS campus.

Torrance Hosts Seahawk Eleven

Although neither squad is too red-hot a prospect to cop the Bay League crown at this point, Torrance and Redondo grid gladiators will be out tonight to keep their rivalry boiling when the two teams meet on the THS field at 8 p.m. It will be the Tartars' annual Homecoming tussle.

Each squad has been able to win only once during the current Bay League chase, but their long dormant offenses have shown signs of erupting in full fury. Could be tonight.

Paced by backs Dean Moore, Bruce Seifert and Tim McMillin and linemen Squeaky Valenzuela, John Niemann and Lou Cook, the Seahawks have downed Mira Costa, 6-0, in loop play in addition to bopping Santa Paula in their season opener, 22-19. The Redondans were whacked by Downey, 21-6, Beverly Hills, 6-0, Bellflower, 19-13, Leuzinger, 14-6, and Inglewood, 27-13.

Best With Bellflower
They have shown better defensive prowess than the Tartars, but haven't met the rough non-conference foes the locals have. Undoubtedly the Seahawks' best game, win or lose, was their 19-13 engagement with Bellflower.

Coached by headman Bob Cardona, and assistants Chuck Waters, Vince McCullough and John Kincannon, the Seahawks use various formations, including the split "T", tight "T" and spread from the short punt. Coaches Don Porter and Jack Miller and their Tartar charges will be facing for the first time this year a prep eleven that does not hold an edge in weight and manpower. Both squads are noticeably weak in reserve strength.

Thin in Reserves
With the possible exception of sub halfback Laddie Conger, a 5'8", 145-pound performer, and Lynn Hoyem, who, at 6'3" and 175, is the Redondans' second signal caller, the visitors' caliber of personnel drops off after the first team.

Porter and Miller worked their lads on defense this week, hoping to spark the flame that held Leuzinger to 23 total yards two weeks ago. Since that game, which gave the locals added title hopes, they folded completely against Centennial, dropping a 33-0 nod.

Miller said Mike Bertolet will get the starting call at quarterback for the first time this season. Charley Valencia had held down the post, but Bertolet has turned into a better passer.

Valencia can still boot the ball a mile, however, and will be in there to punt and to hold down safety on defense.

Hughes at Halfback
Jerry Hughes will open at night halfback in favor of Craig Edman, Edman and Guard Bobby Curran were in an auto crash Monday morning, and although just shaken up, will not start in tonight's fray.

Tartar offensive hopes will ride on Bertolet's right arm and the pass smacking of End Tom Brown. In addition, Fullback Skip Smith, the workhorse of the ground gaining crew, will again be called on to grind out important yardage from the split "T".

Linemen Dave Conry, Butch Hazel and Stan Wilson spark the THS ground offense, while Gonta, Curran, Bill Montgomery, Hazel, Conry, Smith, and Valencia lead the defenders.

Redondo holds only one victory over the Torrance gang in the last four years and will be out to end a scoring drought that has seen the Tartars blank them in the 1953 and 1954 games. Last year, it was 28-0, in '54 the tally was 34-0.

TOP PASS CATCHERS . . . These two Saxon ends, Jim Bald, left, and Roger Snell, have been prime targets for top NHS passer Ray Grieshaber throughout the season. North eleven tackles rough Culver City today in daylight duel at Culver City. Bald and Snell will be counted on to spark Saxon aerial attack for game with once-beaten Culver. Game time is 2 p.m.

North High In First Day Game

Led by CIF scoring whiz Dick Ewen, Culver City, beaten once in seven starts and hot on the trail of the Pioneer League flag, entertains the North High Saxons today in a daylight game at 2:30 p.m. at Culver City.

Ewen, a whale of a split "T" Quarterback, has tallied 96 points on 16 touchdowns in his seven games. He ranks second to San Marino's Skip Face, who has 121 points. Face collected his share of points when San Marino took the Saxons into camp, 48-7, in the third game of the season.

Prior to last week's squeaker with Morningside, which the Culver crew won, 21-20, they had yielded only 20 points in six games. All 20 were tallied by Bell Gardens, which topped the Pioneer powerhouse, 20-14.

Saxon Coach Cliff Graybehl was greeted with some bad news Monday, when defensive end Jim Thomas reported in with a broken thumb. Thomas cracked the digit last week in the Beverly Hills game. He's out for the season.

Graybehl and assistant Bill Ellings will count on the same starting lineup that faced Beverly. Ray Grieshaber, fullback, again will be counted on to lug most of the leather and to pinpoint his passes to leading receivers, Jim Bald and Roger Snell. Snell, a 6'5" end, has snagged a good number of Grieshaber's passes.

Only change in the line may find Don Hayes going at tackle for Bill Warren. Graybehl said yesterday he wouldn't be sure who he'd use until just before game time today.

Harbor Faces Valley Eleven

Following their win over Long Beach City College last Saturday night, by a final score of 13-12, the Harbor Junior College Seahawks will meet the Valley JC Monarchs at Harbor tomorrow night in the annual Harbor Junior College Homecoming Game.

Holding fifth place in the Metropolitan Conference, Harbor will be up against the toughest team in the Metro League at present. Valley has won all five conference games, the latest being a 26-13 win over powerful El Camino last week end. Valley needs only one more win in the two remaining games to cop top honors in the conference.

The Saxons wind up their season next Friday night at El Segundo.

VALLEY TRIPS ECC

ONCE-BEATEN WARRIORS, CORSAIRS VIE SATURDAY

With a strong emphasis on pass defense, Coach Norm Verby will send his once-beaten El Camino gridders against the Santa Monica Corsairs Saturday night at 8 p.m. on the Warriors' turf in a Metropolitan Conference game.

An inspired Valley JC eleven capitalized on the Warriors' main weakness, inability to stop short passes, to send the local crew down to its first defeat of the season, 26-13, last Saturday night on the Van Nuys High School field.

The Corsairs combine a fast running attack with a better than average passing game, featuring Kirk Wilson on the throwing end and Buddy Williams as top receiver.

Striving to gain their winning form and confidence of the past, the Warriors should also feature a threatening running and passing attack.

Jerry Nicholson, field general of the Warriors, who had troubles in the Valley clash after sitting out two games because of a sprained ankle, should be in top form for this one.

Billy McKinney, replacing the ineligible Gerie Wight at the halfback slot, has looked sharp in his last two contests, scoring a touchdown in each one.
